

From: Scott Bicknell
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/6/01 4:30pm
Subject: Microsoft Antitrust Class-Action Settlements

Please explain how letting Microsoft distribute thousands of copies of its software to our nation's schools, which amounts to nothing more than a way for Microsoft to extend its monopoly, punishes them for monopolistic behavior.

In the interests of full disclosure, you should make public exactly what software you use to run your computers.

Scott Bicknell
815 Creek Dr.
San Jose, CA 95125
(408) 266-9692

--

Linux never goes down on me...
...even when promised dinner and a movie.